17/2010 PUBLIC SPEAKING

It was reported that the case against Taywell at the Dunsley Mill site was mounting up as more information was coming forward but mustn't rock the boat at this stage and wait for the outcome but an objection is now more favourable. It was felt that viable alternatives for the future use of the site should now start to be investigated. It was suggested that village issues such as Footpaths and Dunsley Mill could be brought up at the Community Forum meetings in March to try to get action.
